The Zone of Interest by Martin Amis - Goodreads

Martin Amis's "The Zone of Interest.". Far from being a vulture of the crematory, Szmul is a kind of saint of Auschwitz, ascetic and selfless. If he is not an altogether convincing character, it's a nearly impossible task to give a convincing voice to such a person (and such a person very likely existed).

Martin Amis's "The Zone of Interest" | The New Yorker

The Zone of Interest review - Martin Amis's impressive holocaust novel. The Zone of Interest is nothing like his great early novels, but it is the best thing he has written since London Fields. The book's postwar coda is enormously moving, the sections describing the "silent boys" of Chelmno almost unreadably sad,...
